

Present-continuous
by Zane Koss

*[there is a gap
between the past and present participle
that can never be breached]* Extensive searches are being conducted in a 25 km radius around her
property, with no luck.
RCMP are saying there is nothing to indicate foul play. RCMP are saying her disappearance is
unusual since her vehicle,
personal belongings,
medication and dogs
are still here. She is living happily in a shack with out running water or electricity. The last time they are seeing her is August 29, 2007.
